Note to Students

Last year, thanks to the generosity of NMSCPA members, the New Mexico Society of CPAs awarded more than $29,300 to accounting students on their way to becoming CPAs. Available scholarships are listed below and range in amounts:

The Society established its Educational Fund on June 29, 1961. As the professional association for CPAs, its membership includes professionals in public accounting, private industry, government and education. The Society promotes the value associated with the CPA designation and strives to attract highly qualified individuals to the profession. Full-time and non-degree students at any qualifying school are eligible for Society scholarships.

J. Bryan Stephenson Memorial Scholarship

This scholarship memorializes one of New Mexico's first CPAs. Mr. Stephenson held N.M. Certificate #3 and is remembered through the major contribution of his widow, Mrs. Mary M.
